

Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to register my strongest opposition to the proposed reductions in Australian marine reserves and associated diminution of controls and restrictions on fishing in those areas.

Arguments in favour of these changes are predicated on (and err by) putting commercial interests in a privileged position over conservation values. I believe it is crucially important, for conservation and long-term economic reasons, that the Government retain all existing reserves under current management rules.

Roger Brink
70 O'Grady Street
Clifton Hill Victoria 3068