

I support the existing Marine sanctuaries in place in Australia. These are very important for preserving our amazing reefs and fish nurseries. These sanctuaries help keep our fish stocks healthy and are important for tourism as well.

Removing or reducing the size of these marine sanctuaries would be a backwards step and a huge mistake.

Yours sincerely,
Ross Forbes-Stephen
2 Murray Road
Cable Beach 6726