

The Australian Government,

this is completely unacceptable, our ocean's need more protection not less. The areas that currently have protection need to be enlarged by 50%, not halved.

I do not consent to our government removing marine protections, and reject the Government's plans to cut marine protection.

Regards

Craig Bryant

Sent from Outlook