

(Why do humans think they are the most important species in the world?!?! Just because we are an over populated, resource depleting collection of human beings doesn't mean we have to penalise other species!) Keep present boundaries of Marine Parks for the benefit of future generations - both marine and human species!
Suzane Haymes.