

Please do not reduce our international water areas. These areas are very sensitive to over exploitation and must remain an integral part of our marine ecosystem and heritage for future generations of Australians.

Regards

Mark Bizzell