

As a caring and compassionate Australian I care very much about the way we manage our environment, so it is with disbelief that I read every day about cuts in areas that desperately need more support not less.

I believe that The Australian Government is far too concerned with keeping Big Money happy than the future of our children & grandchildren, how short sighted can our leaders be?

Sincerely,
Tricia Turner