

The halving of marine parks - e.g.. Osprey/ Shark / Verma, will result in over fishing ( industrial sized trawlers) - long lining.

We are supposed to be concentrating on conservation of the environment, not rampant exploitation.

These decisions are appalling and should be reversed.

Richard Bramham