

Why is Australia taking steps to ruin the future of our nation and others? These ocean protection zones are necessary for the health of the ocean, without them marine life populations will decrease more rapidly than they are. Please think about the future not a quick buck and what looks good for your term in parliament.