

Dear Management Planners

I am really concerned to know that you are considering cutting back our marine sanctuaries. Why?

Surely there are thousands of KM of ocean left over for commercial and recreational fishers?

What valid reasons would cause you to undo the protection of our wonderfully diverse and valuable marine sanctuaries which provide a safe haven for our fish stocks to grow and flourish and which provide food source for the future?

Thanks for your advice

David Williams

David Williams CPI

david.williams.cpi@gmail.com

0409 235 502

Vice President

WfD and Maintenance Supervisor
Salvation Army Kingston Gardens
Unit 13, 12-16 Garden Boulevard
Dingley Village Vic 3172

Australian
Overseas Foundation

Australian Overseas Foundation Inc. www.aof.org.au