

Please don't wind back our marine protection laws.

There is a delicate balance we don't understand. The changes to life as we know it regarding interaction with our oceans is in danger.

Such a lot of damage has been done in a short amount of time. Please don't bend to big business on this one.

I fish and I want these protections to stay in place.

Kind regards

Jay Krygger