

I request that you reconsider your plans to reduce the national marine parks and conservation areas. These rich ecosystems are national treasures and should not be plundered by super trawlers and the like. I urge you to think long term rather than short term.

Sincerely
Cheryl Zucker
Enfield South Australia