

The Seas around the Australian Coastline were not created by you , or developed where they are , by you !

Stop playing God , especially for the financial benefit of a handful of people !

Leave the Seas , and the systems and creatures within them , alone !

In fact , for an amazing change , work to save them from further destruction !

John Kelly

Tasmania .

P.S. I vote , and am the head of a large , extended voting family .