

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am distressed to hear of the plans to cut back our marine sanctuaries and parks. I believe one of the main reasons for establishing these parks was to protect marine species in large enough areas, as to be able to grow larger breeding age specimens. Without these sanctuaries, the larger stock will be fished out and therefore put in jeopardy.

Please reconsider this action, this government seems hell bent on ruining the Barrier Reef via Adani as well, what is the game plan ladies and gentlemen, you will not be remembered well in history.

Sincerely

Janet Addison
