

Dear Sir/Madam

Why are you cutting the number and size of marine conservation areas? Is it to save money? Yet you happily spend $248 million of taxpayers' money on putting up a fence around Parliament House and running a redundant postal survey. Get your priorities right and restore these marine conservation areas for the well-being of your and our descendants.

Haydn Reeder