

I wish to express my protest against any winding back of conservation protection for our oceans unless it is deemed appropriate based on the science rather than political ideology or meeting the demands of self-interested lobby groups. We need to be making decisions based on longer-term sustainable visions. I am a recreational fisher and am prepared to have areas where I can't fish if it is beneficial to maintain and improve the oceans biodiversity.

Cheers
Peter