

To the coalition government: PLEASE do not take the short-sighted step of reducing Australia's marine conservation areas. Malcolm Turnbull: show some leadership and take steps to preserve our natural treasures for the future, and not for the short-term gains of the big business of long-line fishing and unethical trawling.

Sent from my iPad