

I wish to record my objections to the proposed changes in marine protection/conservation areas. Reintroducing fishing is in the long term going to reduce our fish stocks and the future of Australian fishing. The protected areas are essential fish nurseries. The changes are short sighted and compromise Australia's reputation for environmental concern.

Rgd
Derek Goodlake
Counsellor

Sent from my iPhone