

Management Planning,

I would like to express my objection to proposed cut to the marine protection. It is vitally important that we maintain the marine protection for the future generation, tourism, recreation fishing.

I am horrified by the reduction to the Coral Sea area and do what want to see the same occurring elsewhere along Australia coastline. There is more to life than money, environmental protection much not be reduced but increased and monitored.

Regards,

Kevin Oats