

SUBMISSION REGARDING THE GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION TO REDUCE THE SIZE OF MARINE SANCTUARIES

I am appalled by the government's plan to make a massive reduction to the size of our marine sanctuaries. It would be an absurdly retrograde step in terms of conservation and be condemned by other countries and many international conservation organizations. I object to this intention in the strongest possible terms

Colin Watkins