

Australia must retain its current Marine National Parks area. The reintroduction of midwater trawling is NOT acceptable. The Australian people do not want longlining to be able to start at the southern tip of the Coral Sea reserve to the northern boundary. C'mon for Australia's sakes - keep the current reserves.