

Hello there,

I hear that the government is looking at cutting the area of ocean that it protects by about 50%.

All I can say is how disappointing this is. It would be the opening of illegal fishing in these areas and the environment and its creatures would suffer greatly. Why would you even consider this!

Do the right thing & protect what's ours!

Regards

Dana Quirk