

Hello, I'm really concerned about the cutting back of protection for many of Australia's Marine national parks, I cannot understand the reasoning for this to be happening, considering what's happening to our wildlife and environment around the world. Please could it be possible to reconsider these decisions and help conserve our beautiful marine parks and all its wildlife.

Yours sincerely,

Philip Davies.

Sent from Mail for Windows 10