

Please do NOT reduce the size of our marine Parks in any way. Long line fishing and trawling should be off the agenda altogether, and we absolutely need to keep the protection that was hard won and is currently in place, or better still enlarge rather than reduce the sanctuary areas. Current and future generations will thank you for your part in ensuring the protection of our precious places and species. You have the power to do the right thing, please do it!!!

Regard

Rita Phillips