

Dear Sir

I am absolutely appalled that you are considering winding back even more protection for our National Marine Parks.

Surely any responsible government would never dream of this action.

I sincerely hope that I can read that you have decided AGAINST this insanity and instead are looking at protecting the NMPs for the future of our children.

Regards
Patricia Gibson