

I implore this government to see the error of winding back hard fought for gains in marine protection.

Please, rethink what you are doing, for the sake of the oceans, for the environments depending on the health of oceans, and for the long-term gain for humans in continuing to expand on marine sanctuaries, not shrinking them.

Ruth Eisner
Yankalilla, SA 5203