

Dear Sir or Madam

I am appalled at the prospect of the government significantly reducing the extent of our marine parks. How short-sighted this is. We need to preserve (and expand) our existing marine parks to ensure our future fish stocks are healthy and sustainable.

There is no justification for a review. Leave our marine parks alone.

Desley Graham
Brisbane.

Sent from my iPad