

Hello,

I write to you as a formal submission regarding proposed changes to the protection of our marine environments. I am extremely concerned that our fragile marine environments which are already experiencing the impact of climate change will be severely impacted by the changes being proposed. Please listen to the people of Australia and reconsidering the changes being proposed.

Thanks and Regards

Mark Wellard