

It's a sad day when our government fails to protect our marine life and allows commercial ventures to accelerate the demise of our environment and destruction of the eco system. Onya!!!! Of all times in history this is a chance to salvage something of beauty and survival. I cannot fathom the reasoning behind such decisions.