

Good morning.

At a time when global fisheries are collapsing and formerly richly populated seas are becoming ocean deserts, it is foolhardy in the extreme to wind back protections of our own ocean sanctuaries and national parks.

I urge the Australian Government to rethink this retrograde strategy.

Thank you,
Georgina Clark