

I urge you to maintain protections for Australian marine parks. We must protect existing ocean parks such as Osprey Reef for future generations. I am shocked to learn that the Turnbull government is considering reducing our marine parks for trawling and other commercial activities. Ocean wildlife species are threatened by human destructive and polluting activities. Ultimately all life on earth relies on healthy oceans.

Yours faithfully

Linda Gatfield

Sent from my iPad

Sent from my iPad