

These Marine Parks should be sacred to us - they are our pride and joy. I urge the Government to think twice before cutting back on these special areas if anything they should be enlarged, not diminished!

Margot Seidel