

Please maintain Australia's current marine protections. Rather than cutting them by 50%, consider strengthening these protections even further. Please don't abuse the power you have over the marine environment that is already in a poor state due to human activity.