

To whom it may concern,

I have been informed of a disturbing step the commonwealth government is to implement, whereby 50% of our nation's marine protected areas are to have that protection removed. I urge you to reconsider this step. We need protected areas on land and in our seas more than today more than ever. This is a backward and destructive step that you must rescind.