

I am not happy that the Government is going to wind back the protected areas in our marine reserves.

Our planet needs large areas protected from exploitation and Australia is in a unique position to participate and to lead in this regard.

I am particularly concerned about the prospect of Long line trawlers being allowed in to these areas, and unsustainable fishing practices in general.

We must keep these areas free from exploitation
Please reconsider

Vincent Mumford
0419 531 946