

We need to prevent long line fishing (much of which would be by foreign ships), in order to maintain sustainable marine life into the future so do not reduce the marine reserves!