

The cleanliness of the oceans is crucial to the survival of all sea creatures. Also crucial to their survival is an expansion of sanctuary areas that cannot be fished, or mined for oil and gas, and cannot be dredged to allow deep water vessels to enter shallow areas. Therefore, Marine Parks should be expanded, not reduced.

A responsible government should be looking after our oceans.

Stuart Spark

Bells Beach

Victoria

3228