

Why are we winding back marine parks? Can't we have a few unspoilt areas left? Tourists don't come to see urban sprawl and high rise. They come for unspoilt beaches and reefs and things to see that are not available in their own country!!!