

As a member of the Australian Underwater Federation, I have read the AUF submission and agree with the points raised therein. Spearfishers should not be discriminated against and must have the same rights as other recreational fishers.

Regards

Lachlan Davison